THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES, WITHIN THE MEANING OF TITLE 18, SECTIONS 793 AND 794, OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR REVELATION OF ITS CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS REPORT IS PROHIBITED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. Maj. Gen. Bohumil Lomsky, formerly commander of the 2nd Mountain Brigade, who became First Vice Minister of National Defense on 1 Jan 54, has received an invitation to visit Moscow in Feb 1954. He will be accompanied by Maj. Gen. Jan Zeman, head of the Political Bureau of the army, who recently took over most of the functions of General Cenek Hruska, who is to be retired definitely. They will meet with Marshal Belaginin and Marshal Rokossovsky of the Polish Army.
2. Lomsky has become the real head of the Czechoslovak Army, and with Zeman has greatly reduced the influence of General Kratochvil, chief of the general staff, who is not liked in Moscow. The two officers are in practice directing the Ministry of Defense; they are considered the strongest supporters of blind obedience to Moscow, and their sudden promotion as of 1 Jan 54 has aroused considerable indignation in the general staff.
3. Their chief competitors, General Janko, commander of the Moto-Mechanized Army, and Brig. Gen. Jan Hesko of the Political Bureau, have been pushed into second rank as being suspected of too independent conduct toward the Soviet Military Mission.
4. Lomsky, as expert on fortifications who is particularly well acquainted with the Sudeten Zone, is known for his violently anti-American attitude. He has always been cold toward Maj. Gen. Otakar Rytik, Commander of the 1st Military District and Gen. Jan Tokar, commander at Bratislava, and changes in these commands may be expected. It is probable that Maj. Gen. Frantisek Bures, commander at Olomouc, who was under surveillance during his stay in Korea as a member of the Armistice Commission, will be retired, as well as Gen. Frantisek Papousek.

5. Such major changes are likely to produce a reaction among the officers scheduled for retirement and arrests are in order. The position of General Vaclav Thor, until recently all-powerful in the Defense Ministry, is considered particularly delicate.
6. General Lomsky also expects to reorganize on Soviet lines the advanced military schools, notably the Klement Gottwald Military Academy and the Technical Academy, where a spirit of neutrality toward the USSR has been the rule.
